The aim of the V Financial Reporting Workshop is to discuss high quality papers in all topics related to financial accounting and disclosure. All papers will be peer reviewed prior to acceptance for the Workshop. Moreover, each paper accepted for presentation will be assigned a discussant to enhance a thorough discussion.

We welcome both empirical and theoretical papers and case studies on the following topics:

- Introduction and effectiveness of financial reporting standards
- Accounting Information and Valuation Models
- The role of financial reporting in capital markets
- Accounting and corporate governance
- The role of narrative disclosure in financial reporting
- Risk and risk management disclosure
- Social and environmental disclosure
- Accounting choice and earnings quality
- The role of annual reports and other business communication in financial reporting
- Auditing and accountability
- Corporate disclosure and financial crisis

Any other contribution to financial accounting research will be also very welcome.

Papers or Extended Abstracts should be submitted by March 16, 2014 to the Scientific Committee (wfr-verona2014@ateneo.univr.it). The extended abstract (between 500 and 1.000 words) must present research question(s), methodology, main research findings, theoretical and/or practical/policy implications. Priority will be given to completed papers.

Authors will be notified of acceptance by March 30, 2014. Accepted papers should be submitted by May 15, 2014.

As in the previous FR workshops, conference papers might have a fast track for publication in Financial Reporting.
